Description

An impressive sea view pool villa in a tranquil location overlooking Layan Beach and the whole of Bang Tao Bay with a beautiful sunset sea view. Masses of space and 5 large ensuite double bedrooms over two levels designed in a contemporary Asian architectural style. Constructed in 2005 the property is truly in a perfect condition in fact as new. This is testament to the owners' care and upkeep combined with the developer's original choice of hardwearing and easy to maintain quality materials. A stunning location. A tranquil part of Phuket close to tropical nature and extremely peaceful close to Bang Tao Bay and the beautiful Layan Beach. This location offers not only one of Phuket's most stunning seascapes but also an amazing array of world class restaurants from beach side local eateries to Phuket's only Michelin Starred fine dining establishment all within 10 minutes' drive. The Villa is set across two main levels both are extremely spacious airy and bathed in natural light. The villa also benefits from super height vaulted ceilings as well as floor to ceiling bi-fold glass door systems allow you to easily open whole walls of the villa to create a seamless connection between the indoor/outdoor allowing you to make the most of the views and natural breezes. The 'U' shaped upper level is the main living area for the owners and provides everything necessary for day-to-day living. All rooms surround and are focused on the 15m infinity-edge swimming pool and the stunning sea views beyond. Entrance is to the spacious living area which has two formal/informal dining areas adjacent.
